BLACKWOOD EDUCATIONAL LAND INSTITUTE

Sponsorship Opportunities

At Blackwood, we believe nutritional density begins in the soil. As a 33-acre regenerative farm, we're rooted in this simple principle: healthy food starts with healthy land.Our premiere Food as Medicine Conference brings together curious minds building an integrative lifestyle around natural wellness. Through discussions and hands-on gatherings across the Houston area, we explore how food can boost health and how integrative lifestyle changes are beneficial. Everyone is welcome, from the simply curious to medical professionals.

The Food as Medicine Conference will take place on the farm at Blackwood Educational Land Institute in Hempstead, TX.
